am i the only person who totally believes in his innocence? you guys know what sells papers- all that you thought was evidence was in paper- but the proof of doubt on their so called evidence was not printed- you reporters helped convict him- not evidence. he cheats - so he lies- so what that doesnt make him a murderer - i hope everyone is happy - injustice complete injustice

I've been following the Scott Peterson case closely. Is there a fund set up that I can contribute to for Scott Peterson's defense?

I would like to send more once a fund is established.

Thanks.

How could such a fine young man with such a privileged life, go so wrong? No one can answer that question this week. The answer is quite simple. He may be innocent! I believe that Scott Peterson was a condemned young man before he ever saw the inside of a courtroom. The media made sure of that! It didn't seem to matter that there was no "evidence". He lied, he cheated, he acted really weird so therefore he probably killed. That theory was repeated so often, it even convinced the masses, but are the citizens of Modesto really safer now? I don't think so! I wonder how many more young women will have to die before someone admits that they've made a horrible mistake here. I can only pray that it won't be too late for Scott and his family!

The jurors did not make the right decision for Scott is innocent. There was no evidence of murder because he did not do it and when the police looked at his background it was clean but the police found Amber and they and Amber entrapped him with the tapes so they could demonize him and make people hate him. He was not smart to continue talking to Amber but then when you are innocent you do not think people can do bad things to you. Beware of the police for they can twist everything around and beware of the Media for they are dangerous. This jury made their decision on emotion, hate for Scott, and their greed to make money off this. Amber will have a book out in January so we know her motive was greed as well as that wind-bag Gloria Allred. The judge should have gagged her. This jury wanted to please Sharon Rocha and I spit on their verdict. Just as they did not show Scott any mercy---they also will not be shown mercy. What we do to others we do to ourselves.

It really is absurd for people to affirmatively say Scott Peterson murdered his wife and child. There was no evidence presented in that trial that conclusively could lead anyone to make such an affirmative comment.

It saddens me in this day and age that people think they KNOW things when it's quite possible and more than likely probable that this man did not murder his wife and unborn child.

I wish the Petersons success in finding the "true" murderer of Laci. I feel in my heart that this person is still out there.

I back the Petersons 100% regarding the reward offer. I don't believe it was proven beyond a reasonable doubt that Mr. Peterson murdered his wife.

All I saw the prosecution prove is that Scott Peterson was having an affair (if you can call 4 dates an affair). They proved that Mr. Peterson bought a boat that his family didn't know about...so what. It was not proven that Laci didn't know about the boat. It was proven that with over 3,000 wire tapped phone calls he still spoke with his girlfriend (so what...no confession). The bodies ended up 2 miles where Mr. Peterson was fishing...not one week, not two weeks but FOUR months later. No way you will convince me the baby was able to glide over the rock barrier with one cut to his fragile body.

The verdict was obviously reached due to emotion not on any evidence. There was no physical evidence found in the house, boat, truck, or the warehouse.

I sincerely hope that with this tip line that true justice will finally be obtained for Laci and Conner.

To whom it may concern:

Why is it when someone says something positive about Scott Peterson, the the Modesto Bee either doesn't write it, or finds something wrong with the person that said it?

I do not live in Modesto, I don't even live in CA. I wasn't even interested in this case until I started noticing these things.

Now my interest has grown, and I am looking favorably in Mr. Petersons direction due the the fact that all you people in the paper and tv want to criticize him, and pick a part his friends to the point that they feel intimidated to come forth.

The tide is changing, and I would have to say it is because of that. The slant is much too much towards the DA and there hasn't been any hard proof of anything, and one has to wonder why. It really is starting to look like something very illegal is going on here.

A one sided paper is not interesting. On this part of the USA, Mr. Peterson has quite a few ppl that believe in his innocence and with this paper being so one sided, (and you really have to wonder why) the belief in his innocence will only grow.

Thank you,

Subject: Scott Peterson Verdict

I hope you will be fair, and let the readers of Modesto know that not everyone believes that Scott is guilty. There are many, who believe as I do, that he was convicted by the media before the start of 2003. The fine people of Modesto now believe that a monster has been removed from their midst, but has it really? Scott Peterson, was a young man, who by all accounts, was law abiding, no signs of a violent temper, a good husband to Laci; that is until the media learned of his affair with Amber Frey. Suddenly, he became someone capable of killing his wife and unborn child; the same child he tried so hard to conceive, the same wife he adored, if you believe what her family and friends said, until they learned of Amber! Now we are supposed to rest easier, knowing that he will never harm anyone else, and may possibly be put to death. I, along with many others, just don't see where justice was served. No place of death, no time of death, and certainly no motive was proven for why he did this. The media cries out with, "If not Scott, who"? To me, that is ludicrous. There are obviously many others who would have more reason than Scott to kill this beautiful young woman. Don't we all remember Ted Bundy, Jeff Dahmer, Charles Manson, Cary Stayner, the list goes on and on. None of these killers seemed to have a "reason", yet they did it with no remorse. In the past two years, I have watched our justice system being turned upside down. Scott was a 24 hour a day topic, and reporting just the facts did not seem as important as getting the ratings did. It became a media circus, with every talking head spouting their opinions, halftruths and innuendos to the hungry hords of viewers who just wanted to forget that we were at war. We soaked up every juicy tidbit from the wiretapped calls to the viagra tablets. Then, we started to notice something. With each new day, the information changed a little, just subtle changes that made us start to wonder. If no one really has the answer, maybe they are asking the wrong person to give it to them. Maybe they are wrong. Will it take another young woman floating up from the bay to stop this insanity? Will another innocent victim have to die, as Laci, Evelyn Hernandez and the others have done before someone sees what is right under their noses? This killing was not the result of domestic violence (in my humble opinion) but was the act of a serial killer. When will it be repeated, and will it be too late for Scott? God, I pray not! MONTANA

All I know is there is a conspiracy in the media. I am not smart enough to figure it all out. The Peterson case was an experiment to see how they could influence guible America. I do not know who all the media is in bed with and why. Fox news and Regan press have benefit the most from the Peterson case if you judge everything on financial motivation, however I believe there is an power motivation in this. Fox will throw just enough out there that you cannot see what is going on and they call it Fair and Balanced(it is to keep you off balance). I thought maybe they had learned something with the Peterson case when an innocent man got hurt, but that is insequential. They are having a two hour special on Salvio case tonite. I am not sure how much the email I sent to them and the president has effected them. it is important to watch what is shown with an open mind to content and intent.

On CTV many people would say how terrible it was that people were making money off Laci's death and I see it as they had done there research well and were making money off of guible America. The Salvio case will have a book deal, maybe Regan press will benefit of course people will watch more of Fox. The politics of our government, courts, religious organizations which bring out passion in people are all involved. I just hope no one will get hurt in this case. My thoughts on the Salvio case is that her spirit needs to be given over to God. When I was a hospice volunteer, I arrived at a nursing home one day and the lady had been a morphine shot for the pain as I held her till her daughter could get there she said to me "Do not let my daughter see me like this" She died the next day even in death people have there dignity. I do not think Terri would like to that her parents have showed picture all over the internet and news for their selfish reasons. I was in a nursing home for 2 months a few years back there was an older lady who could walk and feed her self. At nite she would yell out "God come here, I want to talk to you" I always wondered what she wanted to talk to HIM about but did not intrude on her privacy. ^There was another lady there how I loved her she would often say "I want to go home to my Momie" I have no answer for the Salvio case, if you listen to the Bible her husband has control over her, not her parents and to protect himself from her parents went to the courts We as people should not get involved, he did the best he could under the situation. I would hope that someone would do the same for me. I lost 2 internet friends this week trying to show them truth and light on the Peterson case thought there were very religious although they belonged to the church Universal which is considered a cult. Also thought they were very intelligent as they claim there members have IQ of over 140. One was chemist and I had hoped to get some ideas on why Laci's pants were in the condition they were when they found her and where they may of been. As so many people they do not want to get involved, the same kind of people who will watch someone get beaten to death. Law makers and people smarter than I will have to solve this problem if it can be solved. Even law makers need to climb into bed with the media. We are not islands unto ourselves we all need one another but if we hurt someone in the process that it is not right.

Now that this man has been wrongly convicted, by the media in my opinion, Why must they continue to defame him, what more do they want from this man? He has been villified on a daily basis, questions have been asked about why he is allowed to live for up to twenty years, and Terri Schiavo is being starved to death? He has been compared to OJ, Robert Blake, etc. When will it stop? There were five potential crime scenes, the house, truck, boat, warehouse and the bay, yet no evidence was found to prove where or when or how this took place. There were billboards displaying his picture, with the question asked Man or Monster? There was a press conference announcing a 'Mistress'. Fair trial? Not on your life! The media convicted this man before he ever stepped into a courtroom. When another young woman disappears or floats up from the bay just as Evelyn Hernandez and Laci Peterson did, Will they admit that they've made a mistake? Our media has spun out of control and never again will anyone be considered innocent until proven guilty. Our justice system has been turned upside down. Who will be next? Subject: Your article regarding Peterson Newsletter

Dear Mr. Stapley,

While I realize that you may have to work and live in the Modesto area, why do you only do articles that are biased against Scott Peterson, pro prosecution or only do articles from selected parts of the family Newsletter?

There is a wealth of information that this Peterson Newsletter provides. It is concise, articulate and well researched. You don't have to take "their word" for any of it as they clearly give you reference points to back up what they write. If you read these Newsletters in their entirety, you cannot miss on every point just how innocent Scott Peterson is.

You and I both know that it is obvious to all that the media is largely at fault for the misinformation that circulated about this case and you personally are part of that family. It might be difficult to police your own and that would include your own reporting. However, when a man's life is at stake and his freedom is taken away one slow day at a time, I would like to think that you might care enough personally to dig deeper into this controversial case. It really doesn't matter what your own personal thoughts are....you are supposed to be impartial and a seeker of the truth. All you have to do to achieve this is educate yourself on the actual facts of this case and remove your own feelings from the equation.

You could start with the recent jury book. Doesn't it bother you that they did not address any of the issues that pointed to Scott's innocence?

Did it bother you while Jackson was still foreman that Mr. Guinasso said "You can erase acquittal from the board" when Jackson said the trial would conclude with "acquittal, guilty or hung"? (page 142)

Did you have any thoughts that just before the conclusion, the new foreman brought back in the pictures of the autopsy...and this was evidence of what exactly? A play on emotions perhaps?

The EVIDENCE or lack thereof is what should have determined the outcome of this trial and not what Scott said or didn't say or how he acted or didn't act. Now yet another book is out, is not reviewed and is apparently accepted by reporters such as yourself as an explanation for this outrageous verdict. You have no questions whatsoever about this book?

This is justice?

Sincerely,

Subject: hello...

Hello.

I am writing to you to inform you that I believe that Scott Peterson is innocent... I have a strong belief inside me that he did not do what he is being charged with. I do not know him at all, but he just doesn't seem like the type of person who would do something like that. I also think that Amber Frey needs to butt out and keep her nose to herself. She took advantage of him. I believe that she is just a Jezebel. I think that she was only "with him" for his money. I think that she got too involved and obsessed and she has something to do with Laci being murdered. I believe that Amber was jealous that Scott ended it and she went insane and had to have him. No one ever thought that she might have done it. She could have hired someone and had him followed or she could have known that he was going to go fishing and she could have had people kidnap Laci. Then, they could have murdered her and tossed her body anytime after he went fishing in the Bay. Why would he tell where he was if he did murder her? That makes no sense to say "Yeah I was there" and if he dumped her body there I highly doubt he would admit to being in the same place. Think about it. The poor man does not look like he was born yesterday or like he is a complete idiot. Well, I really hope you read my letter and I hope to hear back from you soon.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

In the light of Isaiah 54:17, we all should practice what Ministerial Texan, Dr. Harry Lee advises: "Admit it and quit it!" As we memorize those five-now famous words, we can expect Positive Results and not continued "Nagging Results."

As of January 7, 2004, I will observe my 26th year of Service to Our Lord and Savior.

Scott Peterson is Not Guilty of Murder! GOD Knows that to be TRUE!!! WHO IS? NO ONE!!! Why? Because Laci Roda Peterson and ten-month old son, Conner are both alive and well, somewhere in central Oregon - as of August, 2003.

When we Imperfect Souls sin - or do Dumb or Stupid things - we often choose Deception - Verses The Truth - to keep the matter hidden. We hope it'll all go away. But nothing "hidden" from GOD stays hidden forever.

That's one of the main reasons that

Hello Garth,

I just wanted you to know that I fully believe Scott is innocent and am still appalled at the way the media put a noose around his neck . What about the tape and what about Steven Todd ? Are people truly so ignorant to think Scott did this without leaving any evidence ? I exchange letters with Scott and he is not guilty. No I am not in love with Scott , I happen to be married. I am just a friend showing him support

A Tribute to our hero

OH Scott Peterson boy is he great

He was probably a great fisherman by the age of eight.

When he passes on he'll walk through heavens gate.

Scott was wrongfully convicted what is the deal?

Scott is a innocent man - He is not evil nor a monster like the klu klux klan.

Scott is a great guy. They found condom wrappers at the home of Amber Frey.

I won't lie if she wanted it I would try.

Scott was talking to her from the Eiffel tower

I'll drop Laci's grave a nice flower.

Scott is not Laci's killer, Michael Jackson touches boys and made a video called Thriller

Scott is a real American hero - he is way cooler than Robert DeNiro.

Jacki, Lee, and Scott I'm doing this for ya -

Scott should be the governor of California

He went on alot of dates - Actually Scott should be the president of the united States.

As I sit here and write with my pen - didn't miss Frey have a baby by 2 different men?

Journal of Scott A

To whoever reads this the way the Modesto Bee talked about Scott and his family is totally wrong. I hope you guys like my poem. Scott is a innocent man and has two great, very loving and brave parents. They recieved major head aches by these people who just bad talked them. Jacki is a great mother and the Rocha's were just angry. Lee is also great. I'm so thankful that they created the man Scott Lee Peterson. His court case was fixed. They never found a murder weapon, how would they know Scott dumped the body was he was fishing if the body washed in Richmond? He needs a retrial those jurors had it planned, attracting that they would give him a guilty verdict. They gave him the death penalty to take the life that he was given by his parents. She pleaded for his life in court and was just ignored. Jacki gets my respect and so does Lee. The way the Rocha's outbusted in the last day of court was ignorant and very rude. See Sharon and her family have mastered the art of putting on acts and having people feel sorry them. I'm not falling for it. I have wrote the Rocha's letters and they know the truth.

See we should all hold a candle light vigil for Scott Peterson the man we all respect. He deserves it indeed he does. He lost his wife and son and is wrongfully accused. I along with many others believe in Scott. He does not deserve to be imprisoned at San Quentin. The way everyone bad talks him is gonna blow up in their faces. I know he will be free someday and the real killer(s) will be found and brought to justice.

Jacki and Lee Peterson also deserve a candle light vigil. Cause they've been put through so much. It's the Modesto's and -four newspapers fault that she is ill. You guys contributed to that. Why is everyone on the Rocha's side?
