

UPSCALE PLAZA

The Village at Vintage Faire is a 60,000-square-foot addition to the existing mall. Macerich, the owner of Vintage Faire Mall, describes The Village as a “lifestyle center” because it’s home to upscale stores like Coach, Coldwater Creek, Bebe and Sephora. The Village also boasts an Apple Store, one of only about 250 worldwide. BJ’s Restaurant & Brewhouse opened across from the plaza earlier this month. All these businesses are new to the Northern San Joaquin Valley.

- Misters will operate on warm days.
- Project will displace about 150 parking spaces that won't be replaced.
- The Village will employ about 300 people.
