

SLASHING BUDGET

California State University, Stanislaus, President Hamid Shirvani announced $6.2 million in cuts this week from the university's $96 million budget. Here's where some of the money is coming from:

■ Cut 11 management positions: $740,000

■ Cut 13 administrative support positions: $683,000

■ Slash summer course offerings by 47 percent: $665,000

■ Savings from employee benefits: $1.1 million

■ Reduce temporary lecturers or decrease their course loads: $1.85 million

■ Raise thermostat, shutter science building: $60,000