

NUMBER OF HOMES LOST

About 50,000 Northern San Joaquin Valley homes have been lost to foreclosure since the housing crisis began 3½ years ago, according to ForeclosureRadar. The region is the epicenter of the nation's foreclosure crisis, which combined with a chronically high unemployment rate has stressed and depressed thousands of residents.

Source: MDA DataQuick Information Systems