

NORTH COUNTY CORRIDOR

Transportation leaders say they want to hear what people think about plans for a new expressway, the exact path of which has not been determined and is shown here in general terms. Monday's public hearing will be held in Salida.

Source: California Department of Transportation; North County Corridor Route Adoption Project, final environmental impact report